Rebranding of Global Expandia to Vistra Now Complete

Vistra establishes presence in Indonesia, expanding global footprint of International Expansion services

Hong Kong, 17 December 2018 – Vistra, a leading global corporate service, trust and fund administration provider, announced today that Global Expandia, an international expansion expert in Indonesia, has now been officially rebranded as Vistra. The acquisition announcement was first made in March 2018.

Commenting on the rebranding, Stephen Chipman, Group Managing Director of International Expansion Services at Vistra said, “This is a significant milestone for Vistra as we build market presence in Indonesia. With Indonesia being one of the leading Asian jurisdictions for international companies to expand into, the addition of Global Expandia would grow our global footprint of the International Expansion division particularly in Southeast Asia.”

Miguel Latorre, Managing Director of Vistra Indonesia, said, “We have deep experience in Indonesia and understand what is needed to be successful here, including the regulatory and market environment as well as local business culture. We look forward to leveraging our local expertise and Vistra’s global network to support clients who are looking into entering the Indonesia market or expanding overseas.”

Headquartered in Jakarta, Vistra Indonesia assists international companies in all stages of their expansion and operations in Indonesia, offering them the peace of mind to focus on their core business. The dedicated team of local and international experts provides one-stop solutions on company formation, pre- and post-incorporation advisory and corporate services including tax and compliance, accounting, payroll, recruitment and corporate secretarial services.
