  - (b) unless the Court orders otherwise, the related company must send a notice of the application to each creditor of the related company who will be affected by an order under subsection (1) and who is known to the related company.
- (4) An order of the Court under subsection (1) —
- (a) may be made subject to such terms as the Court imposes; and
  - (b) may be expressed to apply to any act of any person in Singapore or within the jurisdiction of the Court, whether the act takes place in Singapore or elsewhere.
- (5) The Court may extend the period for which an order under subsection (1) is in force, if an application for the extension of the period is made by the related company before the expiry of that period.

(6) The related company, any creditor of the related company, or any receiver and manager of the whole (or substantially the whole) of the property or undertaking of the related company, may apply to the Court for the discharge or variation of any order made under subsection (1).

(7) An order made by the Court under subsection (1) does not affect the exercise of any legal right under any arrangement (including a set-off arrangement or a netting arrangement) that may be prescribed by regulations made under section 411.

(8) In this section —

“chattels leasing agreement”, “hire-purchase agreement” and “retention of title agreement” have the same meanings as in section 227AA;

“netting arrangement” means an arrangement under which 2 or more claims or obligations can be converted into a net claim or obligation, and includes a close-out netting arrangement (under which actual or theoretical debts are calculated during the course of a contract for the purpose of enabling them to be set-off against each other or to be converted into a net debt);

“set-off arrangement” means an arrangement under which 2 or more debts, claims or obligations can be set-off against each other.

“relevant company” means a company that has made an application under section 211B(1), or in relation to which an order under section 211C(1) is made.

Super priority for rescue financing

211E.—(1) Where a company has made an application under section 210(1) or 211B(1), the Court may, on an application by the company under this subsection, make one or more of the following orders:

- (a) an order that if the company is wound up, the debt arising from any rescue financing obtained, or to be obtained, by the company is to be treated as if it were part of the costs and expenses of the winding up mentioned in section 328(1)(a);
- (b) an order that if the company is wound up, the debt arising from any rescue financing obtained, or to be obtained, by the company is to have priority over all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts, if the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is given the priority mentioned in this paragraph;

- (c) an order that the debt arising from any rescue financing to be obtained by the company is to be secured by —
- (i) a security interest on property of the company that is not otherwise subject to any security interest; or
  - (ii) a subordinate security interest on property of the company that is subject to an existing security interest, if the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is secured in the manner mentioned in this paragraph;

- (d) an order that the debt arising from any rescue financing to be obtained by the company is to be secured by a security interest, on property of the company that is subject to an existing security interest, of the same priority as or a higher priority than that existing security interest, if —
- (i) the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is secured in the manner mentioned in this paragraph; and
  - (ii) there is adequate protection for the interests of the holder of that existing security interest.

(2) A company that makes an application under subsection (1) must, unless the Court orders otherwise, send a notice of the application to each creditor of the company.

(3) Where a company that has 2 or more super priority debts is wound up, the super priority debts —

- (a) rank equally in priority between themselves; and
- (b) are to be paid in full or, if the company has insufficient property to meet them, are to abate in equal proportions between themselves.

(4) Where a company that has 2 or more super priority debts is wound up, the super priority debts constitute one class of debts and, despite section 328 —

- (a) the super priority debts are to be paid in priority to all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts; and
- (b) if the property of the company available for the payment of the super priority debts is insufficient to meet the super priority debts, the super priority debts —
  - (i) have priority over the claims of the holders of any debentures of the company secured by a floating charge (which, as created, was a floating charge); and
  - (ii) are to be paid out of any property comprised in or subject to that floating charge.

(5) The reversal or modification on appeal of an order under subsection (1)(c) or (d) does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any security interest that was granted pursuant to the order, or the priority of that security interest, if the rescue financing (from which arose the debt intended to be secured by that security interest) was provided in good faith, whether or not with knowledge of the appeal, unless the order was stayed pending the appeal before the rescue financing was provided.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (1)(d)(ii), there is adequate protection for the interests of the holder of an existing security interest on the property of a company, if —

- (a) the Court orders the company to make one or more cash payments to the holder, the total amount of which is sufficient to compensate the holder for any decrease in the value of the holder's existing security interest that may result from the making of the order under subsection (1)(d);
- (b) the Court orders the company to provide to the holder additional or replacement security of a value sufficient to compensate the holder for any decrease in the value of the holder's existing security interest that may result from the making of the order under subsection (1)(d);
or
- (c) the Court grants any relief (other than compensation) that will result in the realisation by the holder of the indubitable equivalent of the holder's existing security interest.

(7) Section 329 does not affect any priority conferred, any security interest or relief granted, or any payment made, pursuant to and in accordance with an order made by the Court under subsection (1).

(8) The company must, within 14 days after the date of an order under subsection (1), lodge a copy of the order with the Registrar.

(9) In this section —

“super priority debt” means a debt, arising from any rescue financing obtained or to be obtained by a company, that is to have priority, pursuant to an order under subsection (1)(b), over all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts, if the company is wound up.

Filing, inspection and adjudication of proofs of debt

211F.—(1) Where the Court orders under section 210(1) a meeting of the creditors, or a class of creditors, of a company to be summoned, the company must state in every notice mentioned in section 211(1) summoning the meeting (called in this section the notice summoning the meeting) —

- (a) the manner in which a creditor is to file a proof of debt with the company; and
- (b) the period within which the proof is to be filed.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), if a creditor does not file the creditor’s proof of debt in the manner and within the period stated in the notice summoning the meeting, the creditor is not allowed to vote (whether in person or by proxy) at the meeting.

(3) The Court may, on an application made by the company or a creditor, make an order extending the period stated in the notice summoning the meeting within which a proof of debt is to be filed.

(4) Upon the making of an order under subsection (3), the company must as soon as practicable send a notice of the order to each creditor meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement.

(5) Every proof of debt filed under this section is to be adjudicated by the person who is appointed by the Court to serve as the chairman of the meeting summoned pursuant to the order made under section 210(1) (called in this section the chairman).

(6) A creditor who has filed a proof of debt under this section is entitled to inspect the whole or any part of a proof of debt filed by any other creditor, except a part of the other creditor's proof that contains information that is subject to any obligation as to secrecy, or to any other restriction upon the disclosure of information, imposed by any written law, rule of law, contract or rule of professional conduct, or by any person or authority under any written law.

(7) The chairman must inform each creditor who has filed a proof of debt, within such time and manner as may be prescribed, of the results of the adjudication of the proofs of debt filed by all creditors.

(8) A creditor (A) who has filed a proof of debt may object to one or more of the following:

- (a) the rejection by the chairman of the whole or any part of A's proof of debt;
- (b) the admission by the chairman of the whole or any part of a proof of debt filed by another creditor;
- (c) a request by another creditor to inspect the whole or any part of A's proof of debt.

(9) Any dispute between the chairman and the company, between the chairman and one or more creditors in relation to the rejection of a proof of debt, or between 2 or more creditors in relation to the inspection or admission of a proof of debt, may be adjudicated by an independent assessor appointed —

- (a) by the agreement of all parties to the dispute; or
- (b) if there is no such agreement, by the Court on the application of —
  - (i) any party to the dispute; or
  - (ii) the company (whether or not a party to the dispute).

(10) Where a creditor, the company or the chairman disagrees with any decision of an independent assessor on an adjudication under subsection (9) in relation to the inspection, admission or rejection of a proof of debt, the creditor, company or chairman (as the case may be) may file a notice of disagreement regarding that decision for consideration by the Court when the Court hears an application for the Court's approval under section 210(4) of the compromise or arrangement in question.

(11) When exercising its discretion under section 210(4), the Court must take into account any notice of disagreement filed under subsection (10).

(12) The Minister may make regulations under section 411 to provide for the procedure relating to the inspection and adjudication of proofs of debt filed by creditors under this section.

(13) Without restricting the generality of subsection (12), the regulations mentioned in that subsection may provide for the following matters:

- (a) the procedures for the making of a request, by a creditor who has filed a proof of debt, to inspect a proof of debt filed by any other creditor, and for the objection to the request by that other creditor;
- (b) the period within which a proof of debt is to be adjudicated by the chairman;
- (c) the time and manner in which creditors are to be informed under subsection (7) of the results of the adjudication;
- (d) the procedure relating to the resolution of any dispute mentioned in subsection (9).

(14) Despite anything in the regulations mentioned in subsection (12), the Court may —

- (a) on an application by the company, approve any variation in or substitution of the procedure relating to the inspection and adjudication of proofs of debt filed by creditors under this section; and
- (b) on an application by any person subject to any requirement imposed by the regulations, grant relief to the person or extend the time for the person to comply with the requirement.

Power of Court to order re-vote

211G.—(1) At the hearing of an application for the Court's approval under section 210(4) of a compromise or an arrangement between a company and its creditors or any class of those creditors, the Court may order the company to hold another meeting of the creditors or class of creditors (called in this section the further meeting) for the purpose of putting the compromise or arrangement to a re-vote.

(2) When making an order under subsection (1), the Court may —

- (a) make the order subject to such terms as the Court thinks fit;
- (b) direct that the further meeting be summoned or held in such manner as the Court thinks fit; and
- (c) make such orders or directions as the Court thinks appropriate in respect of one or more of the following matters:
  - (i) the classification of any creditor for the purposes of voting at the further meeting;
  - (ii) the quantum of any creditor's debt that is to be admitted for the purposes of voting at the further meeting;
  - (iii) the weight to be attached to the vote of any creditor at the further meeting.

Power of Court to cram down

211H.—(1) This section applies where —

- (a) a compromise or an arrangement between a company and its creditors or any class of those creditors has been voted on at a relevant meeting;

- (b) the creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement are placed in 2 or more classes of creditors for the purposes of voting on the compromise or arrangement at the relevant meeting;
  - (c) the conditions in section 210(3AB)(a) and (b) (insofar as they are applicable) are satisfied at the relevant meeting in respect of at least one class of creditors; and
  - (d) either or both of the conditions in section 210(3AB)(a) and (b) (insofar as they are applicable) are not satisfied at the relevant meeting in respect of at least one class of creditors (each called in this section a dissenting class).

(2) Despite section 210(3AA) and (3AB)(a) and (b), the Court may, subject to this section and on the application of the company, or a creditor of the company who has obtained the leave of the Court to make an application under this subsection, approve the compromise or arrangement, and order that the compromise or arrangement be binding on the company and all classes of creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement.

(3) The Court may not make an order under subsection (2) unless —

- (a) a majority in number of the creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement, and who were present and voting either in person or by proxy at the relevant meeting, have agreed to the compromise or arrangement;
- (b) the majority in number of creditors mentioned in paragraph (a) represents three-fourths in value of the creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement, and who were present and voting either in person or by proxy at the relevant meeting; and
- (c) the Court is satisfied that the compromise or arrangement does not discriminate unfairly between

2 or more classes of creditors, and is fair and equitable to each dissenting class.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(c), a compromise or an arrangement is not fair and equitable to a dissenting class unless —

- (a) no creditor in the dissenting class receives, under the terms of the compromise or arrangement, an amount that is lower than what the creditor is estimated by the Court to receive in the most likely scenario if the compromise or arrangement does not become binding on the company and all classes of creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement; and
- (b) either of the following applies:
  - (i) where the creditors in the dissenting class are secured creditors, the terms of the compromise or arrangement must —
    - (A) provide for each creditor in the dissenting class to receive deferred cash payments totalling the amount of the creditor's claim that is secured by the security held by the creditor, and preserve that security and the extent of that claim (whether or not the property subject to that security is to be retained by the company or transferred to another entity under the terms of the compromise or arrangement);
    - (B) provide that where the security held by any creditor in the dissenting class to secure the creditor's claim is to be realised by the company free of encumbrances, the creditor has a charge over the proceeds of the realisation to satisfy the creditor's claim that is secured by that security; or
    - (C) provide that each creditor in the dissenting class is entitled to realise the indubitable

equivalent of the security held by the creditor in order to satisfy the creditor's claim that is secured by that security;

(ii) where the creditors in the dissenting class are unsecured creditors, the terms of the compromise or arrangement —

(A) must provide for each creditor in that class to receive property of a value equal to the amount of the creditor's claim; or

(B) must not provide for any creditor with a claim that is subordinate to the claim of a creditor in the dissenting class, or any member, to receive or retain any property on account of the subordinate claim or the member's interest.

(5) The Court may appoint any person of suitable knowledge, qualification or experience to assist the Court in estimating the amount that a creditor is expected to receive in the most likely scenario if the compromise or arrangement does not become binding on the company and all classes of creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement.

(6) In this section, "relevant meeting" means —

(a) in a case where the compromise or arrangement in question is subject to a re-vote under section 211G(1), the meeting held for that purpose; or

(b) in any other case, the meeting ordered by the Court under section 210(1) or, if that meeting is adjourned under section 210(3), the adjourned meeting.

Power of Court to approve compromise or arrangement without meeting of creditors

211I.—(1) Despite section 210 but subject to this section, where a compromise or an arrangement is proposed between a company and its creditors or any class of those creditors, the Court may, on an application made by the company, make an order approving the compromise or arrangement, even though no meeting of the creditors or class of creditors has been ordered under section 210(1) or held.

(2) Subject to subsection (12), if the compromise or arrangement is approved by order of the Court under subsection (1), the compromise or arrangement is binding on the company and the creditors or class of creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement.

(3) The Court must not approve a compromise or an arrangement under subsection (1) unless —

- (a) the company has provided each creditor meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement with a statement that complies with subsection (8) and contains the following information:
  - (i) information concerning the company's property, assets, business activities, financial condition and prospects;
  - (ii) information on the manner in which the terms of the compromise or arrangement will, if it takes effect, affect the rights of the creditor;
  - (iii) such other information as is necessary to enable the creditor to make an informed decision whether to agree to the compromise or arrangement;
- (b) the company has published a notice of the application under subsection (1) in the Gazette and in at least one English local daily newspaper, and has sent a copy of the notice published in the Gazette to the Registrar;
- (c) the company has sent a notice and a copy of the application under subsection (1) to each creditor meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement; and
- (d) the Court is satisfied that had a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors been summoned, the conditions in section 210(3AB)(a) and (b) (insofar as they relate to the creditors or class of creditors) would have been satisfied.

(4) Despite subsection (3)(c), the company may, if directed by the Court, give notice of the application under subsection (1) to the creditors or class of creditors in such manner as the Court may direct.

(5) Where the company is a banking corporation or licensed insurer, the Monetary Authority of Singapore established under the Monetary Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 186) has the same powers and rights as a creditor of the company under this Act, including the right to appear and be heard before a Court in any proceedings under this section.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Court may grant its approval of a compromise or an arrangement subject to such alterations or conditions as the Court thinks just.

(7) The Court must not approve any compromise or arrangement which has been proposed for the purposes of or in connection with any scheme mentioned in section 212(1), under which the whole or any part of the undertaking or the property of a banking corporation incorporated in Singapore or licensed insurer incorporated in Singapore is to be transferred, unless the Minister charged with the responsibility for banking or insurance matters, as the case may be, has consented to the compromise or arrangement or has certified that his consent is not required.

(8) The statement mentioned in subsection (3)(a) must —

(a) explain the effect of the compromise or arrangement and, in particular, state —

(i) any material interests of the directors of the company (whether as directors or as members, creditors or holders of units of shares of the company or otherwise); and

(ii) the effect that the compromise or arrangement has on those interests, insofar as that effect is different from the effect that the compromise or arrangement has on the like interests of other persons; and

(b) where the compromise or arrangement affects the rights of debenture holders, contain the like explanation with respect to the trustees for the debenture holders as, under paragraph (a), the statement is required to give with respect to the directors of the company.

(9) Each director, and each trustee for debenture holders, must give notice to the company of such matters relating to the director or trustee as may be necessary for the purposes of subsection (8) within 7 days after the director or trustee receives a request in writing from the company for information as to such matters.

(10) Any director of a company or trustee for debenture holders who contravenes subsection (9) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

(11) A person, being a director of a company or a trustee for debenture holders, is not guilty of an offence under subsection (10), if the person shows that the person's contravention of subsection (9) was due to the refusal of another director of the company or trustee for debenture holders to supply to the person the particulars of the person's material interests affected by the compromise or arrangement.

(12) Unless the Court orders otherwise, an order made under subsection (1) —

(a) has no effect until a copy of the order is lodged with the Registrar; and

(b) takes effect starting on the date of the lodgment.

(13) Where the terms of any compromise or arrangement approved under this section provides for any money or other consideration to be held by or on behalf of any party to the compromise or arrangement in trust for any person, the person holding the money or other consideration may after the expiration of 2 years, and must before the expiration of 10 years, starting on the date on which the money or other consideration was received by the person, transfer the money or other consideration to the Official Receiver.

(14) The Official Receiver must —

- (a) deal with any moneys received under subsection (13) as if the moneys were paid to the Official Receiver under section 322; and
- (b) sell or dispose of any other consideration received under subsection (13) in such manner as the Official Receiver thinks fit, and deal with the proceeds of the sale or disposal as if those proceeds were moneys paid to the Official Receiver under section 322.

Power of Court to review act, omission or decision, etc., after approval, etc., of compromise or arrangement

211J.—(1) This section applies after a compromise or an arrangement, between a company and its creditors or any class of those creditors, has been approved by the Court under section 210(4) or 211I(1).

(2) Where the Court is satisfied that the company or the scheme manager of the compromise or arrangement has committed an act or omission, or made a decision, that results in a breach of any term of the compromise or arrangement, the Court may, on the application of the company, the scheme manager or any creditor bound by the compromise or arrangement —

- (a) reverse or modify the act or decision of the company or the scheme manager; or
- (b) give such direction or make such order as the Court thinks fit to rectify the act, omission or decision of the company or scheme manager.

(3) The Court may, on an application of the company, the scheme manager or any creditor bound by the compromise or arrangement, clarify any term of the compromise or arrangement.

(4) No order or clarification made, and no direction given, by the Court under subsection (2) or (3) may alter, or affect any person's rights under, the terms of the compromise or arrangement as approved by the Court under section 210(4) or 211I(1).

- (a) an order that if the company is wound up, the debt arising from any rescue financing obtained, or to be obtained, by the company is to be treated as if it were part of the costs and expenses of the winding up mentioned in section 328(1)(a);
- (b) an order that if the company is wound up, the debt arising from any rescue financing obtained, or to be obtained, by the company is to have priority over all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts, if the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is given the priority mentioned in this paragraph;
- (c) an order that the debt arising from any rescue financing to be obtained by the company is to be secured by —
  - (i) a security interest on property of the company that is not otherwise subject to any security interest; or
  - (ii) a subordinate security interest on property of the company that is subject to an existing security interest,if the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is secured in the manner mentioned in this paragraph;
- (d) an order that the debt arising from any rescue financing to be obtained by the company is to be secured by a security interest, on property of the company that is subject to an existing security interest, of the same priority as or a higher priority than that existing security interest, if —

  - (i) have priority over the claims of the holders of any debentures of the company secured by a floating charge (which, as created, was a floating charge); and
  - (ii) are to be paid out of any property comprised in or subject to that floating charge.

(6) The reversal or modification on appeal of an order under subsection (1)(c) or (d) does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any security interest that was granted pursuant to the order, or the priority of that security interest, if the rescue financing (from which arose the debt intended to be secured by that security interest) was provided in good faith, whether or not with knowledge of the appeal, unless the order was stayed pending the appeal before the rescue financing was provided.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (1)(d)(ii), there is adequate protection for the interests of the holder of an existing security interest on the property of a company, if —

or
- (c) the Court grants any relief (other than compensation) that will result in the realisation by the holder of the indubitable equivalent of the holder's existing security interest.

(8) Section 329 does not affect any priority conferred, any security interest or relief granted, or any payment made, pursuant to and in accordance with an order made by the Court under subsection (1).

(9) The judicial manager must, within 14 days after the date of an order under subsection (1), lodge a copy of the order with the Registrar.

6. In addition to and without prejudice to any powers of the Court under or by virtue of paragraph 2 of this Article, the Court may, on the application of the foreign representative or a person affected by the stay and suspension mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article, or of its own motion, modify or terminate such stay and suspension or any part of it, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit.
